WASHINGTONVILLE LOCAL GLEANINGS

By Peter M. Herold. Family Reunions, Etc. The thirty-second annual reunion and table picule of the Roller family held at Riverside (Stop 9, Y. & O. interurban line) last Thursday. The location is good and the weather was ideal the entire day, so that nothing prevented the grand and notable object of their meeting. A large dining tent had been provided, a speakers' stand was erected and all things made ready for the greatest gathering in the history of these family reunions. were 175 persons present by actual count, and some may have been missed. There was an abundance of shade, good boating from the grounds shade, good boating from the grounds to McKeefrey's dam, and more than enough to eat; they say that there were 16 kinds of cake, all kinds of ples and jellies, all the chicken that could be desired, other eatables galore, with a field of waving corn as a background to the tables under the tent, and "heap good talk" by chiefs of the several tribes represented, and by others. At the entrance to the others. At the entrance to the grounds a rope was stretched across the public highway and from the rope an American flag swung to the breeze. People came in hay-wagonloads, car-riages and automobiles. W. A. Roller of Millville is president and Miss Hazel Roller of Columbiana is secretary and treasurer. Rev. L. M. Daubenspeck of Greenford opened the services with prayer. W. E. Roller of Washingtonville made the address of welcome, followed by Mayor John S. Roller of Lowellville, Judge Calvin of Youngstown, Rev. M. C. Grimes and others; closing with an entertaining address by Gen. John E. Roller, C. S. A., who just arrived from the Shenadoah Valley, to extend an invitation to this branch of the Roller family to be present with the Virginia branch next year. The General gave a brief history of the family from its arrival from Germany in the 17th century; its separation into families or tribes some going north, others going south He says there is a family history being prepared for publication, and while many names are found among the professions, trades and in farming, not one can be traced to penal servitude. His arrival here was delayed Locust Grove orchestra with organ accompaniment which was greatly appreclated. A letter of regret from Prof. Frank Roller at Detroit was read by the secretary and ordered placed on file. As a suitable closing of the day's enjoyable program, the entire audience arose and sang "God be meet again, benediction by Rev. Daubenspeck. A general handshaking and hearty goodbye closed the day's doings. It was stated as being understood that these reunions will be held on the 3d Thursday of August each year at the same lace, unless otherwise arranged. The first Roller reunion was held in a grove near Washingtonville in August, 1879, and Gen. Jacob Roller was made chairman. Isaac Roller, who was present, was the first white child born Green township. Rev. John R. Roller of Mt. Union delivered the address. The names at that reunion were taken by W. E. Roller and Urban Weikart, Jacob Roller, a native of Wittenberg, Germany, came to America about the year 1740 at the age of He married Miss Mary Hammer, also a native of Wittenberg, of which union seven sons and two daughters were born, viz: Jacob, Michael, John, Balser, Philip, Henry and Caleb, and Margaret and Mary. Many of the original stock are buried in the local day's exercises were enlivened by the

The third annual reunion of the Moore family was held at Riverside stop last Saturday, occupying the same grounds and tent as were used by the Roller reunion on Thursday; and notwithstanding the threatening weather 100 members of the family were present. Orchestra music interspersed the short talks given by mbers of the family. These gatherings have not yet been sufficiently numerous to glean much historical data as to the origin of the parent stock of the Moore family; yet the name is unquestionably of Scotch-Irish origin, as much so as that . f Sir Thomas Moore the poet, Rory O'-Moore, Sir John Moore and others of greater or less notoriety. In some counties of Ohio the name is common among certain civilized tribes of American Indians, some of that name appearing in the Indian grave-yards at Gnadenhutten and Upper Sandusky The day was enjoyably spent at this last reunion, the sumptuous meal was relished by all present, and the event promises to be a permanent affair efore adjourning it was decided to hold the next reunion in Centennial park at Salem on the third Saturday of August, 1913. The officers elected Urban Moore, president; Geo Moore, vice president; A. H. Moore, secretary, and Melborn Moore, treas-

Mrs. Matt Simpson was overcome by a sudden attack of heart trouble last Thursday, and for a time fears were entertained for her recovery. J. C. Welkart and wife and David Weikart and wife drove to North

Benton Sunday and spent the day at the home of Jesse Galbreath and wife. The heavy wooden girders have been placed upon the upper story of the school building and several carloads of slate have been delivered for est inhabitant. Misses Rhea Gilbert and Mary Vaughn will represent the Lutheran C. E. society at the county convention to be held at Columbiana September 4, 5 and 6.

Leesville, Carroll county, the birth-place of John D. Archbold, observed its centennial last week. John D. is now able to buy that entire county, real and personal, if taken at ten times its appraised value. Charles C. Hotchkiss, with his wife and two sons of Pittsburgh, came Saturday evening for a visit with relatives here. Mrs. H. will remain for a few weeks, while her husband reumes work on the B. & O. Ry.

It is thought unnecessary to name a Bull Moose ticket in Columbiana county, as there is but one republican party, and Taft will carry the county, anyway, unless Eugene V. Debs carries a few more precincts. David Calvin, the fish vender, was in town last Friday and sold 150 pounds of fish before 10 o'clock, and could have sold as many more.

health for some time. The most cheering news to reach this village Saturday evening was the acquittal of attorney Clarence Darrow at Los Angeles, after a persecuting trial lasting since May 15. Mr. Darrow is no stranger to the people of Mahoning county, and his complete victory over his bovine assailants is hailed with delight. Five practical pottery men were here last Thursday and left a typewritten statement to the effect that if there can be $20,000 of stock submuch more, and Washingtonville will be assured of a sanitary pottery plant. The proposition is being earnestly discussed by men who know that this village must soon take on new life or sing the doxology.

Dr. Justus, a government physician for the northern district of Ohio, was here last week Thursday afternoon, and with Dr. Rhodes made a thorough examination of John H. Longbottom, extending over a period of two hours. He found that Mr. Longbottom's left lung has entirely atrophied and that he is now subsisting by the right lung only. It will be remembered that Mr. L. served in company D, 126th O. V. and was wounded in the left lung at the battle of the Wilderness May 6, 1864, and was mustered out with his company June 25, 1865. For several years he has been drawing a pension of $30 a month, and this recent examination may mean an increase. A citizen of this village was in Wheeling last week and fell in with a representative of the Daily Tele graph of that city with the following interview as a result, published under a two-column head-line: Dr. C. W. Cowan, of Washingtonville, O., who breezed past the eighty-first mile-stone and is going along chipper as a colt toward the eighty-second, is a visitor in Wheeling, a guest of E. M. Atkinson, near Elm Grove. Dr. Cowan, who is an itinerant medicine man who has traveled the state of Ohio several times, is about the spryest octogenarian who has ever been seen in these parts. He might be taken for a well preserved 50-year-old man. His head and flowing beard, though hoary, are abundant and the doctor walks with an elastic step, his eye is clear, his hand steady and his mental faculties as good as those of a man not ore than half his age. "I've been a republican all my life, but I am unble to find the party this year," said Dr. Cowan to a Telegraph reporter. "I voted for John C. Fremont, the party's first candidate, and I've voted party's first candidate, and I've voted for every republican candidate for president since. "I prefer Roosevelt to Taft, but I like Wilson better than either of them. Taft has not redeemed a promise he has ever made. I like Roosevelt in some ways, but I do not agree with him in many of his ideas. I believe in the recall, but not in the recall of decisions as advocated by Roosevelt. This idea to my mind, shows Roosevelt is not the logician he is reputed to be. The whole batnarrows down to Wall street and the people. I believe Wilson will make a great president and I do not believe there is any question but that he will be elected. During the administration of Taft we have the spectacle of the supreme court running the government."

J. C. Eyster and John Cole have painted the roof on town hall. Mrs. J. S. Davis and daughters Mar; and Gwyndolin are visiting friends in

Miss Mary Heaton spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank Heckert in Salem. Miss Euphemia Anderson of East

Prof. B. F. Stanton, formerly prin cipal teacher in the Salem high school passed through here on the Erie Monlay forenoon.

The Longbottom reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Summerville at Garfield on Saturday, August 31. Mrs. Louise Vignon and son Wilbert have returned from a pleasant visit at the home of Layton Deloter and wife at Rochester, Pa. Joseph Kindig, wife and children and Mrs. Barbara Coy of Green township drove here in their auto on Monday to visit Mrs. R. E. Schaffernock-

Mrs. S. C. Wilson and daughters Epha and Kathryn, accompanied by Mrs. Dil Webster and daughter Maud were in Canfield on Tuesday visiting relatives.

It is rumored about Leetonia that Dr. F. E. McKinney has sold his practice to a physician from Baltimore, and that the former will return to his old home in St. Louis. Prof. E. S. Freed and wife went to Girard Monday morning to acquaint hemselves with their new surroundings, and on Tuesday went to Mt. Union to pack their goods. The never failing crop of elderber ies are ripe, and we can hope for our share of "roadside pies" this winter. A joint committee from both Sunday schools is arranging for a union picnic to be held at Shelton's Grove August 31, if train service on the Erie

James M. Atkinson and family have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Huntington, Ind., and Lorain, O. They have not found much material change in this old town, but they prefer it to anything they have seen in their travels, as a well regulated residence town.

Vote at Con-Con. election September You may not live to vote for another. One amendment says "thou shalt not kill," vote for it. Another gives your wife, your sitser and your mother the same chance in this world yourself: vote for it. In fact vote for the whole ball of wax, then have a clear conscience.

The choir has secur ed new chairs, the seats will be slight ly elevated and the mellow light from the memorial windows blending so nicely with the modest tint upon the walls, cannot help being pleasing to the eye.

To vote $50,000,000 for good roads in Ohio will cost 161/2 cents on each $1,000 worth of taxable property Most large cities of the state already have good roads, so that the city taxes will come mostly to the rura districts, where it is needed most, and where city chappies can come in their automobiles without the usual com plaint of bad roads. The country peo ple can then get their products to market at all seasons of the year.

Relatives and friends from Youngstown, East Palestine and Lisbon assembled at the home of James Broad bent at Teegarden on Sunday to cel ebrate the 40th birthday anniversary of his sister, Mrs. ohn Faloon, who chanced to be there on that occasion. A royal dinner, ice cream, etc. were the appetising part of the program, to say nothing of the gab fest and the good feeling that prevailed. The hamlet is beautifully located near Shelton's Grove, and the old mill still standing, that was built 110 years 31st wedding anniversary of F. L. Stouffer and wife, their daughter, Miss Minnie Stouffer, will celebrate event by having a marriage of her own by joining heart and hand with Mr. Fred C. Denner, a contractor of Youngstown, in which city the prospective bride was employed when the "match" was made. As this event will occur before the next issue of the Dispatch, we take this opportun-ity of wishing the happy twain a long and prosperous journey on the tem-pestuous sea of matrimony. weeks. A citizens' meeting was held in the mayor's office Wednesday night to consider a proposition made by John Grafton and others to build a five kiln pottery here, if we furnish the required amount of land and take $20,-000 in stock, then leave the management to them. The matter was freely discussed, but as the pottery men were not present in person, no action could be taken, and another meeting was suggested, at which these men can be present and explain matters to the satisfaction of prospective stockholders. Jos. L. Fitzpatrick was made chairman and J. N. Paisley, secretary. On motion it was agreed that such meeting be held in K. of P. hall next Monuay night, that the secretary inform the potters as to the sense of Wednesday nights' meeting and that a full attendance of interested citizens be requested.
